VOL. III. NO. 233.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS.

PERCY TAYLOR, THE CHUMP.

One Percy Taylor, a much snubbed, dirty and debtful Englishman of low class, is seeking to make mischief in local turf matters again. The fellow has offended before. Ed Corrigan disciplined him for it in 1894. Taylor's face received a most thorough bath of tears after Corrigan had honed him down. The Taylorian face needed the bath. DAILY RACING FORM has told the plain truth about this fellow Taylor two or three times. He's ignorant, dirty, unsightly, leans toward imbecility and isn't naturalized. He owns pieces of horses of the Treby class, but runs them in the name of others for purposes of debt evasion.

The esteemed Inter Ocean—probably by an oversight—harbors Taylor. If the Inter Ocean thinks the fellow worth defence, DAILY RACING FORM will be more than glad to discuss the function of a newspaper toward the turf, and dissect Taylor—with gloves and a lot of sulphur.

Behind Taylor is a track of failure, chumpism, falsity and dirt. Before him appears the outline of an asylum for imbeciles. Taylor's ugliness, used for Taylor, are not worth comment. But when the fellow slurs and abuses conditions, men and horses of honesty, silence is not golden or commendable. That is why DAILY RACING FORM has this to say about a badly bred fellow, who wouldn't be tolerated in the avenues of English respectability.

CHICAGO'S HEALTHY RACING.

Thursday's card at Harlem is full of beauty. There is class and substance to it at every corner. The old days seem to be coming back. Then, too, there's general health to the sport. It's speculative side is buoyant and healthy and the racing is full of form and contention. The track, too, is well operated at every angle, and the thoroughbred racing and breeding industry of America is gaining weight in consequence.

HARLEM'S NEW STAKES.

Harlem announces the conditions of eight stakes, all with the present novelty of added money instead of guaranteed values. The entry fees are low, the conditions liberal and well chosen for the material on hand. Here is the list:

Stake.	Age.	Fee.	Start.	Add.	Cond.	Dist.
Cicero	All ages.	$5	$25	$300	Selling	1 m
Senior	3-y-o.	5	25	600	Allow.	1 1/8-1 1/4 m
Finale	3-y-o.	5	25	600	Hand'pl	1 1/8-1 1/4 m

The eight events close with Secretary Nathanson, Wednesday, October 6. All are to be run at the meeting which begins October 12.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Marcus Daly has sold Senator Bland, Missioner and Punter, the three best racers in his Western string, to H. L. Franke, of Butte, for $10,000. Mr. Franke has engaged John S. Campbell, lately Mr. Daly's trainer, and will race the horses in California the coming winter.

At Stockton, Cal., September 22, Glen Ann and Bottlewasher ran two dead heats in a five furlong race in 1:03, 1:03. It was too dark for a third trial and the judges declared the race a dead heat and divided the purse.

Gene Leigh is credited with planning a Mexican campaign the coming winter at Bob Pate's Indianilla track in the suburbs of the City of Mexico.

For a breeder in a moderate way he is a prize. Hawthorne is for sale. Address Barney Schreiber, DAILY RACING FORM, Chicago, Ill.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:01 1/2, 1:15, 1:28.

Winner—Br. f, 3, by Buckmaster—Queen Bess.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second cleverly; third and fourth driving. Queen Safie was the good thing. She had worked well and the smart people backed her. She got away running and nothing ever got near her. Her performance does not fit in with her last race. Ovation ran to the notch. She prefers light weight and a fast track. Connolly made too much use of Song Bird chasing Queen Safie the first half. Little Music, off poorly and interfered with early, did not run his race. Terranet finished fast. There was lots of crowding on the first turn. In the jamb King Galong and Tom Sayre fell. Both boys were badly hurt.

Scratched—Latus, 103; Lottie, 97; Verdi, 116; Harry Gwynn, 108.

Overweights—Hamlin, 3 1/2 pounds; Lady Cordell, 3.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:01 1/2, 1:03.

Winner—B. c, by Inspector B—Margo.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; the next three were also driving. Depending should have won. Woods skinned the rails with him and saved a lot of ground on the stretch turn. He got a trifle careless though after that and let Gray, with Official, steal a march on him. Official's race was better than recent performances and shows the colt to be coming to himself. He was the class of the race. Depending is a hard luck colt. Knowles has evidently gone back. His owner says he cannot account for the colt's poor performance. Tom Calvert, off in the rear division, ran a bad race. Connolly's ride on him was far from good. This is not the colt's best. Watch him.

Scratched—Fonsavannah, 108; Ruskin, 103; Candleblack, 103.

1827 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds. Owners' Handicap.

Winner—B. c, by Tenny—Mamie B.

Off first break to a good start. Won easily; second driving; third and fourth handily. David Tenny was the best and little Dorsey rode him nicely. He followed instructions to a dot. He was told to lay far back with Tenny until the three furlong pole. There he made his run and was far the best. It was little Dorsey's first mount. The victory was most popular. The boy was taken into the stand and exhibited by Col. Clark, after weighing in. The youngster weighs 45 pounds. Lady Callahan set a terrific pace. She settled herself and also Dan Huger and Aquinas, going the first five-eighths.

Overweights—Aquinas, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Plevna—Abukru.

Off first break Start good. Won handily. The others were driving to the limit. Abuse was the best. He was cleverly ridden, too. Sloan got away running, but took him back on the far turn and allowed Preston to head him. The early pace was terrific. It put Preston to sleep. Abuse is a sluggish fellow and had to be urged at the head of the stretch. He came away at his leisure the last eighth. The field broke running. Little Land and Damocles finished fast. The latter is ready to win.

Scratched—W C T, 106.

quarter on the flat. Templemore just staggered in. He and King Michael set a terrific pace. King Michael will do to watch. He does not like to go a mile and a quarter though. Mr. Dayton cut himself badly at the second jump. Zaldivar seemed to sulk all the way. Proverb was hopelessly beaten when he fell. His race was far below par.
Overweights—Tramp, 34 pounds; King Michael, 3.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Pontico—Verosa.
Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won hand ridden; second, third and fourth driving hard. Uncas was lucky. He got away well on his stride and had clear sailing all the way. Mamie Callan should have won. The ride on her was a nightmare. Reitz always took the long route, and when he did try to move upon the far turn he was sharply interfered with. Helen Wren and Tin Cup both finished fast. Off better, Tin Cup would have been a contender. Sweet William showed a flash of early speed. He favors a soft track. Virgie Dixon looked good, but had less than her usual speed.

*Coupled in betting.
Winner—Br. c, by Salvador—Bavaria.
Start straggling. Won easily. Salabar was best off, well ridden and lucky. Dacian lost at the start, took the long route, and finished strong. He is a great mudder. Banished finished gamely. He dislikes trouble apparently and favors a route. Komurasaki was off badly and closed on the leaders from the start. He ran impressively. Gibraltar was jostled in first part. He showed a great burst of speed and looked promising on the stretch turn but quit. He is a wonder in the mud but cannot stay. Warrenton was overweighted.
Scratched—Fleeting Gold, 112; Hardy, 107; Festa, 112; Scotch Plaid, 112.
Overweights—Warrenton, 4 pounds.

*Finished course.
 Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Exile—Forever.
 Start good. Won easily. Forget was much the best. She has a bad inclination to run out on the turns and swerves at the hurdles. Baby Bill ran a fine race, but got a good ride and likes a distance. Waltzer wants the grass course. He quit badly in the stretch. Hermano fenced well for a short distance, but was outclassed. Formal and Counselor Howe sulk and are bad racing tools generally.
 Scratched—Contractor, 130.
